

application terms and conditions.

1. The Australasian Legal Practice Management Association Limited ('the Association') reserves the right to accept or reject any offer of partnership. In determining partnership offers the following terms and conditions will apply to each partnership application submitted by an Applicant:

1.1 The Association has a policy not to grant exclusivity to any particular partner for any product/service category or industry. We see it as beneficial to the members of the Association to have the opportunity to compare products and services available in the legal industry services market. In some cases, undertakings may be given not to allow direct competitors to co-partner events.

1.2 Decisions of the Association's Board in regard to allocation of all partnership opportunities will be final and no correspondence will be entered into with unsuccessful Applicants.

1.3 The entitlements set out under each of the partnership benefits are detailed in the prospectus to which these terms are annexed and constitute the total commitment by the Association to partners, advertisers and exhibitors. Any additional requirements may incur additional charges. Partnerships are not transferable.

2. All prices are quoted exclusive of GST (unless otherwise stated). The Association is registered for GST purposes.

3. The Partnership Prospectus is valid for the 2025/2026 financial year, that is 1 July 2025 to 30 June 2026. The 2025/2026 ALPMA Partner Prospectus is now open for interested Applicants to submit applications. Applicants will be advised on a first in first served basis with applications being accepted or declined within 14 days of submission.

4. Applicants accept ALPMA's Annual Partnership Terms and Conditions by submitting their application.

By completing the form the Applicant:

- agrees that the Applicant has read the Documents and that the Applicant is bound by the terms of the Documents from the time that this Application is submitted to ALPMA;
- acknowledges that ALPMA is not bound by these Documents until such time that the Documents have been fully completed by the Applicant and ALPMA has accepted the application (such acceptance to be communicated in writing to the Applicant); and
- represents and warrants to ALPMA that the representative who completed this Application to become an ALPMA Partner in FY26 is duly authorised to submit this Application and bind the Applicant.
